

Festival Information

An application is a non-refundable commitment to the show. No refunds will be made for bad weather. To download yours, visit awesomblossomfestival.com and click on the spring fest logo.

You may pay the application fee by mailing your check or money order, payable to Bethel UMC before April 25, 2020 along with your application. A late fee of $25.00 applies on or after April 30, providing space is still available. No payment will be accepted after April 30, 2020. $25.00 will be charged for any returned checks. In the event that your application is not accepted, you will be refunded.

Set-Up Information

- Advanced set-up is encouraged and available on Friday, May 1 from 1:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. No overnight parking/lodging permitted on church property. There will be security on site.
- Saturday, the day of the festival, all booths must be set up by 8:30 a.m. You will be given a check-in time which you must strictly adhere to. Failure to set up on time may result in the forfeiture of your spot. All vehicles must be removed from the front parking lot and relocated to a designated lot nearby.
- Booth assignments and parking lot access passes will be mailed to you in early April. The parking lot access pass will allow you to enter the front lot only for unloading and reloading. It is not a parking pass.
- Vendors are responsible for transporting their own items from the parking lot to their booths and vice versa. We encourage you to manage setup and breakdown on your own, but limited help will be on site if needed.
- Vendors must provide their own means of display within their allotted space. No nails or stakes may be used to secure your tent. Please bring weights.
- The Awesome Blossom Spring Fest begins at 9 a.m. and ends at 4:00 p.m. You may discreetly begin packing your booth at 3:30 p.m. Breakdown will begin promptly at 4:00 p.m. and your space must be cleaned no later than 5:00 p.m.
- No promoting your product or service outside of your booth space.

Vendor Agreement & Disclaimer

- Bethel United Methodist Church (Bethel) is in no way responsible for any goods or person injured, damaged or lost or liable during the time of the festival. This includes setup and breakdown times.
- Bethel requires all vendors to clean their assigned area when the festival is over. Food vendors using grease or cooking oil are required to take the used grease/oil home with them as there is no place for disposal on site. Vendors with animals are responsible for cleaning up after their animals. Violators of clean-up policy will not be invited back.
- Bethel assigns booths on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests for specific areas will be considered, but not guaranteed. It is up to the discretion of the committee to limit the number of similar vendors based upon space availability when registering.
- Bethel does not supply tents, tables, chairs, etc. There is no discount for purchasing multiple spaces and each vendor may purchase no more than two spaces.
- Bethel has a limited number of electrical booths. Vendors must list all devices that will require electricity. Failure to do so can lead to a loss of power to your booth or another booth. Vendors will be charged a fee of $12.00 for the use of each electrical outlet. Limit of two outlets. No power strips or splitters are allowed!

Please sign below if you have read, fully understand, and accept these conditions.

Signature

Date

For more information, contact:

General Festival Information: Bethel UMC 770-474-2570

Craft & Vendor Information: awesomblossomfestival.com